POSSIBLE CHANGE IN MEXICAN POSITION TOWARD CUBA

FR Washington: WEIDMANN

29 Nov 63

TO Buenos Aires: Foreign Ministry

--

Msg Nr: 501

It is known that the Mexican Foreign Minister was obviously disturbed by the knowledge of the note sent by the Cuban Government to the Mexican Government attributing to it participation in a plot aimed at involving the CASTRO Government in the plan for the attack on KENNEDY. Because of this, it is felt that there may be a change in the well-known Mexican position toward the Cuban problem.
